OUR PHILOSOPHY

Investment Philosophy

Our Philosophy is to search out business opportunities that others have overlooked or rejected due to risk assessments done. We see hidden value in these opportunities or at times create new companies where we identify existing problems, along with solutions that can be commercialized and scaled. Although some companies may not have possessed strong balance sheets or a guiding framework prior to acquisition, Kadeen established an investment philosophy and guiding principles for each of Dequity Group's portfolio companies.

Kadeen oversees the Group's strategic development and its future direction.

Strategies

Permanent Capital

Dequity's Permanent Capital strategy enables longer investment periods than traditional private equity, generating long-term, consistent dividends. This strategy ties in strongly with our investment philosophy of generating attractive returns by following a patient disciplined investment approach.

Private Equity

Dequity pioneered a sector-focused approach to private equity. We partner with entrepreneurs at every phase of growth to rise to the next level and maximize future opportunities. We focus on associate stakes in companies from lower-middle market and high-growth organizations to large cap enterprises – We partner with companies of all sizes and at various stages of the business lifecycle, leading them on a path to even greater success.

Public Equity

We invest in public papers, both stocks and bonds listed on the Jamaica Stock Exchange and New York Stock Exchange. We pursue a fundamentally driven, research-intensive long/short equity investment strategy with an emphasis on the diversification on longterm sectors. Our investment objective is to seek superior risk-adjusted absolute returns across the economic/investment cycle and to exploit competitive advantages to generate long-term investment results.

OUR FOUNDER

History of Founder

Kadeen, is widely regarded as a visionary entrepreneur and strategist whose philosophy of “solving problems and creating businesses with the solutions” has resulted in extraordinary business success and inspiring initiatives.

In 2016, at the age of 24, after retiring from his banking ambitions at National Commercial Bank as a then supervisor with credit experience, Kadeen borrowed money to start his own Microfinance Institution called M24 Investments Limited. Three years later, he sold the assets of the then medium size lending outfit to the second oldest stock brokerage firm in Jamaica – Stocks & Securities Limited with assets under management (AUM) then exceeding J$200M USD. At the time, Stocks & Securities Limited had a subsidiary called Dolla Financial Services Limited, a Micro Credit company, which Kadeen was appointed Chief Executive Officer. Within 4 years, Dolla grew exponentially, to more than J$350Million loan portfolio under management, disbursing more than J$1.2Billion in loans. By 2020, Dolla Financial Services was one of the most respected and well-established microfinance institution in Jamaica with 7 branches island wide.

In 2019 Kadeen’s dreams of providing debt to micro, small and medium enterprises were well on its way through Dolla, but his pending aspirations to provide equity to businesses was unfulfilled. In August of that year 2019 , Dequity was formed as a Private Investment Holding company with its first investment involved owning a 20% stake in Dolla Financial Services valued US$600,000, whilst retaining 100% stake in M24 Investments Limited he founded; focusing in Cambio and Remittance Services. In 2020, Kadeen partnered with First Rock Capital Holdings (Listed on the Jamaica Stock Exchange – Main Market) in a transaction valued at US$1,800,000.00, which saw Dequity maintaining an associate stake in Dolla Financial along side First Rock as majority shareholders.
